

Use following abbreviations to describe problem:

EA means explicit and detailed verbal descriptions or narrative accounts of sexual excitement, or sexual conduct and that is harmful to minors

---

N nudity or sexual conduct, SE sexual excitement, SB sexual battery, B bestiality, or SA sadomasochistic abuse

NSC means not suitable material or conduct for minors per existing statutes

City of Heavenly Fire by Cassandra Clare – book review

25	Hannah took off her shirt and let Justin put his hands up her bra.	NSC; EA
27	She came over to my table at lunch, whispered the proposition in my ear, and I had a hard on for the rest of the day	NSC; EA; SE
52	I've had my ass grabbed before-no big deal	NSC; EA
88	"Oh my God!" she screamed, "He's cramming his dick in his pants."	NSC; EA; SE
101	Don't worry; Mrs. Crimsen, I thought. No boys in here. No alcohol. No drugs. No fun.	NSC
121	...your top three things to do on weekends. Which is funny, because whoever designed the list forgot to mention drinking and sex- which would've been the most accurate response for most of our student body	NSC; EA
37,47,48,50,56,207,254,255,256,278,279,280	19 pages contained material not suitable for children	